Subject: Re: Cultural stuff
How strange, I wonder how would have called that late at night. Did he say anything else? And one last random question did he have a snobby voice? Keith and I are heading up to Willmington Delaware Saturday through Monday. We are going to tour Winterthur a historic house museum and Longwood gardens and a few other sites. Hope your day is going well, mine is very slow and the overcast sky is not making me feel any more energetic.
