Subject: Re: Evelyn Lincoln
Kara,Thanks for the update. I will try to answer your questions.Evelyn Lincoln - regarding box 1 1953-61, I don't remember what was in that box, but unless it contains more logs or appointment books for 1961, or unless I flagged specific items, there is no need to send the other material.Texas Trip all set. I just wanted to make sure it wasn't overlooked.Oral Histories - It would be preferable to have the entire interview left intact rather than just sending the excerpts. The oral histories will need RIFs. Let me know if that is a problem.Solider of Fortune -- I'll wait for MeganLast Chapter in EL's book -- You should probably ask Megan about this as well, since it was something she mentioned to me, but was not an item I actually looked at.Your review of JBK material was helpful. Too bad nothing more substantial turned up. It appears that the only item of interest was the interview for the LBJ Library. I will get back to you about the material you listed for Cabinet 2, Drawer 3 but my inclination is that it is not of great value for our purposes. You stated there was nothing remotely relevant in the other folders. What about the folders that were labeled "White House." I just have to ask the question, which has been asked a million times already- did you come across any sort of logs that recorded activities within the White House?Let me know if you have any questions.Thanks again for your help.Irene
