Subject: Re: June letter to Burton

Document count for the two June meetings combined is over 1800. That's not bad. Other good news in the realm of document review: CIA is almost done their review of the microfilm records from the Sequestered Collection. The latest estimate that Barry gave is that there are less than 600 pages awaiting review. This is encouraging news that offers hope that CIA will complete review of Assassination records within the lifetime of the Review Board. Sorry for the delay in sending this information to you. Merci.
