Monica says thats it. And we scrub them as we always do. Pete and I will work on them next week.

We have a Xerox paper box more than half full of floppies. You might verify with Monica that they are indeed all of the disks. Also, the box into which I peeked had disks with SECRET labels. You might verify that the information on the disks is suitable for the unclassified database. I will put the box on the desk next to the fax machine in the SCIF.
