

Position Announcement: ARRB General Counsel.

The Assassination Records Review Board (ARRB) is accepting applications for the position of General Counsel. The ARRB is an independent federal agency, created by statute, that has responsibility for identifying, securing, and making available records relating to the assassination of President Kennedy. It is expected that the ARRB will be in existence until September 30, 1997.

The ARRB is seeking a General Counsel with a broad legal background. Applicants must have excellent academic credentials, be familiar with relevant areas of the law, be able to obtain a Top Secret clearance, and be available to start work immediately. Of particular value in potential candidates are the following: experience in a federal agency General Counsel's office; knowledge of information-access and record declassification law; knowledge of national security and federal law enforcement issues; experience dealing with Congress and large federal agencies (including the Justice Department, Defense Department); prior TS/SCI clearances; familiarity with issues surrounding the assassination of President Kennedy; experience with federal and state litigation; and experience with federal government legal issues including personnel matters, FOIA, the Sunshine Act, etc. Candidates should send resumes and letters describing their experience to: David G. Marwell, Executive Director, Assassination Records Review Board, 600 E Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20530. Applications will be accepted until July 14, 1995.