

Dear Senator:

I recently had the pleasure of attending the roundtable sponsored by the Commission on Protecting and Reducing Government Secrecy and wanted to let you know how stimulating I found the discussion. Of particular interest were your comments concerning your own reaction to the assassination of President Kennedy.

As you may be aware, there are published sources that suggest that you, at the behest of Robert Kennedy, were involved in an informal "investigation" of the Secret Service immediately following the assassination.¹ We would very much like to learn more about this "investigation" and to address the question of whether records may exist that document it.

We can arrange to conduct the interview at a time and place of your choosing. Please contact me at your earliest convenience so that we can make appropriate arrangements.

Sincerely,

¹See Warren Hinckle, If You Have a Lemon, Make Lemonade, New York: G.P. Putnam's Sons, 1974, p. 263. Mark S. Zaid and Charles J. Sanders, "The Declassification of Dealey Plaza: After Thirty Years, A New Disclosure Law at last may Help to Clarify the Facts of the Kennedy Assassination," in South Texas Law Review, Vol.34 No.3 (October 1993), pp. 436-437.