

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thank you for your letter of April 22, 1995.

I take exception to your characterization of my April 18th letter as "self-serving." We have done our best to serve your interests and will continue to do so to the extent that the law and the facts allow.

You could help us in this effort if you were more clear -- and less combative -- in your correspondence with us.

Sincerely,
