

To Whom it May Concern:

Thom Wilborn has asked me to provide this general letter of recommendation. Should you need additional information, please feel free to contact me.

Thom joined our organization in December 1996 as Press and Public Affairs Officer and remained through the end of June 1997 when his services were no longer required.

Wilborn brought with him the seasoning and expertise of a long career in journalism and media affairs. He was a loyal and dependable colleague who approached his assigned tasks with enthusiasm and good cheer. Thom can be counted on to be a productive member of any organization and offers a mature and steady hand backed by significant experience.

My staff and I wish Thom the very best in the future.

Sincerely yours,

DGM
