Dear Jim :

I'm sorry we haven't been able to make contact over the telephone in the last few days. I've called you on numerous occasions and left messages on your answering machine several times. As I mentioned in my messages I'm following up on our telephone call of three weeks ago, as we agreed at that time I would do.

To restate the substance of my messages, I am hoping to speak to you to learn if you've been able to contact Alan Campbell yet. I would like to speak with him concerning Guy Banister's files. I would also appreciate it if you would send me the materials you mentioned concerning John Garrett Underhill and some of the miscellaneous materials you offered to send about New Orleans in general.

I would also like to speak with you to get your thoughts on who on the West Coast might be of assistance to the ARRB if the Board held a public hearing there. You and I spoke of this briefly on the telephone and I wanted to explore your thoughts and suggestions about it in greater detail.

I hope you are well and that nothing has interfered with your willingness to assist the Board in its work, as I understood you express it during our last telephone conversation. Thank you for contacting me in the near future.

Sincerely,

Anne Buttiner, Esq.
