Dear Mr. Mack:

I've read your December 29, 1994 letter to Tom Samoluk concerning the questions surrounding Lee Harvey Oswald's possible attendance at Stripling Junior High School in Fort Worth. In that letter you mentioned that several researchers are curious about the apparent inconsistencies in Oswald's education history. I know Jim Marrs addressed the Review Board on the same topic at the public hearing on November 18, 1994.

In addition to Mr. Marrs who else would you recommend I speak to from the research community in this regard? I welcome any suggestions you have for making additional inquiries about Oswald's education and employment history in Texas which will lead the Review Board to assassination related records.

I anticipate doing a great deal of investigative work in Dallas and the surrounding areas in the months to come; I look forward to meeting you at that time. Until then any suggestions you can make in this issue will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Anne Buttimer, Esq.
Chief Investigator
