Garrow will be getting his tomorrow morning

Dear:

Welcome to Washington. We are pleased that you are able to join us for the Experts Conference.

We will be meeting at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, May 16, 1995 at our offices at 600 E Street, N.W. (2nd Floor), Washington, D.C. 20530. Our offices are approximately 15 minutes by taxi from your hotel.

I am enclosing a copy of our agenda. I encourage you to take a few minutes to look over the Agenda Topics and Issues. They were prepared to help stimulate discussion. I trust that you will have additional items that should be included as well. Because we will not be able to address all of the important topics, I would like to spend the first few minutes on Tuesday setting your priorities for our discussion. The basis for the priorities should be, of course, the likelihood that a discussion will point to fruitful leads for the location of additional records.

We hope that you also will be able to join us for dinner at The Peasant restaurant tomorrow at 6:30 p.m.

Sincerely yours,

David G. Marwell
Executive Director
