

Board Determination on FBI File

At its June 17, 1998 meeting, the Review Board voted unanimously (5-0) to release in part the FBI file on Thomas R. Peasner, Jr., a Korean War POW. The Review Board made the following determinations:

- Everything in the file which the debriefing officers recorded that Mr. Peasner said about himself during his debriefings is to be opened in full.
- All documents about Mr. Peasner containing the text of his writings or transcriptions of statements he broadcast via radio while interned are to be opened in full.
- All statements made about Mr. Peasner (and Mr. Peasner only) by other POWs who were debriefed following internment are to be opened in full.
- All dates of birth, places of birth, and service numbers of individuals in the file will be postponed until June 2008.
- The names of persons (other than Mr. Peasner himself) who made debriefing comments about Mr. Peasner will be postponed until June 2008.
- Comments made about Mr. Peasner himself, or by any other POWs who were debriefed, about any persons other than Mr. Peasner will remain postponed until June 2008.
