

Lopez Report Issues/Sources and Methods

Importance of Mexico City

In the 1960s, Mexico City was one of the most important espionage centers in the world. High number of countries had embassies there.

US targeted particularly USSR and Cuba.

Intensive surveillance of the embassies.

Peculiarities:

CIA witnesses with recollections different from standard version

Phillips

Win Scott

transcriber of Russian translations

Agee

Oswald's unrecognizable Russian

10 entrances/exits, but no surveillance photos

Misidentification of photo

Discrepancies about existence of tapes

HQ asserts it did not know of visit to Cuban embassy until after assassination, yet HQ on November 23 asks for information going back to September 27.