Dear Mr. Bouck:

I am writing to thank you for coming to our offices yesterday. All of the staff members who talked with you agreed that your remarks were very helpful.

We especially appreciated your observations about liaison with other agencies, your own experiences at the Secret Service, and your recollections of the events surrounding the assassination.

It was a pleasure to meet you. If after reflecting on our conversation you feel that you might remember additional details, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Joan Zimmerman
