

DEED OF GIFT
FOR THE HISTORICAL MATERIALS OF
STEPHEN TYLER

1. In accordance with the provisions of chapter 21 of title 44, United States Code, and subject to the terms, conditions, and restrictions set forth in this instrument, Stephen Tyler (the "Donor") gives, donates, and conveys to the United States of America, for deposit in the President John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection (the "JFK Collection") at the National Archives and Records Administration (National Archives), the following historical materials (hereinafter referred to as "the Donated Materials"):

A VHS copy of Tyler's documentary on Jim Garrison and the prosecution of Clay Shaw entitled, "He Must Have Something," and eight VHS tapes of interviews that he conducted for the show.

2. The Donor warrants that, at the time of the execution of this Deed of Gift, he possessed title to, and all rights and interest in, the Donated Materials free and clear of all liens, claims, charges, or encumbrances.
3. Title to the Donated Materials shall pass to the United States either upon delivery of the Donated Materials, or upon the execution of this Deed of Gift by the Donor and the authorized representative of the JFK Assassination Records Review Board or the National Archives.
4. Once title to the Donated Materials has passed to the United States, the Donor will make the Donated Materials available to the Assassination Records Review Board or the National Archives.
5. During the Donor's lifetime, the Donor retains to himself all copyrights in his writings in all papers and other historical materials donated to the United States of America under the terms of this instrument. Upon the Donor's death, all said rights shall pass to the Government.
6. The JFK Assassination Records Review Board will instruct the Archivist of the United States (the "Archivist") to add the Donated Materials to the JFK Collection in accordance with the provisions of title 44, United States Code, section 2107.
7. Once title to the Donated Materials passes to the United States and the Donated Materials are included in the JFK Collection, the Donor may freely examine them during the working hours of the depository at which they are being maintained.
8. (a) It is the Donor's wish that the Donated Materials be made available for inspection by the public as soon after and to the fullest extent possible following their inclusion in the JFK Collection. However, it is the Donor's wish that the Donated Materials not be reproduced for distribution outside the National Archives.

(b) The Archivist may, subject to restrictions placed upon him by this instrument, law, or regulation, provide for the preservation, arrangement, duplication and reproduction, repair and rehabilitation, description, exhibition, display, and servicing of the Donated Materials as may be needful or appropriate.

9. The JFK Assassination Records Review Board agrees that once it receives possession of the Donated Materials, it will promptly ship the Donated Materials to the National Archives for inclusion in the JFK Collection.
