- FISA -- 50 U.S.C. § 1801 et seq.
 - legislative history -- see cites Jeremy gave me & also USCCAN
- Ratification of Vienna Convention
 - senate 1971/1972
 - signed by various governments several years before; makes it illegal to trespass on embassies
- Executive Order 12, 333
- CIS -- look for "Hoover," esp. with regard to appropriations hearings for FBI
- review 50 U.S.C.A. generally, particularly:
 - Chapter 15
 - Chapter 23 -- Internal Security/Control of Subversive Activities, etc... & p. 410 (communist control)
 - Chapter 36 (FISA)
- Communications Act of 1934, 47 U.S.C. § 605
 - people going to court against the Govt. to challenge Govt operations
 - check notes for old cases, particularly volumes published in the 1970s (really only want cases from 1960s)
 - ONLY interested in tapping foreign governments, not organized crime, communist party, etc...
 - the Keith case led to the development of the FISA
 - Phil remembered another case -- maybe Black, in which Thurgood Marshall was Solicitor General
- 150 pages of FBI/FCI's Manual in FBI FOIA reading room
 - call reading room first to see if we can't just get a copy
- FBI public affairs office for pamphlets from national/internal security
 - briefing people on how to avoid becoming a source of information for a foreign power
- William French Smith (c. 1985) published a guideline for prosecutors regarding what they could and could not use. e.g. said could not use mail cover
- media reports in mid 1980s about Soviet embassy moving up the hill to get better intelligence on American communications
- Top Hat & Fedora
 - NY -- did FBI brag about it -- what did they disclose about the Federal Investigation?
- Church Committee
 - do this last
 - discloses mail cover, but does not disclose countries

- Media Reports
 - Tom/Eric getting media reports about US/USSR spying on each other

- PHIL will page through Theoharis bibliography
 - "1" means highest priority
