Dear Mr. Hosty:

This letter will confirm our telephone conversation of today's date in which we agreed that you would come to Washington, D.C., on November 18 and 19, 1996, to meet with members of the Review Board staff. We look forward to talking with you at that time. We will be in touch with you in October to finalize your travel arrangements, but if you have questions or comments before then, please feel free to call. I hope that your wife continues to have a successful recovery.

Sincerely,

Laura Denk
