

-- For example, you have been quoted as stating that you used an "intermediary" in your contacts with Bishop when you were traveling or otherwise not accessible. How much did your intermediary know about your relationship with Mr. Bishop? Do you think this intermediary would be willing to come forward with information that might identify Bishop?

-- You have been quoted that Bishop referred you to a Mr. Melton, who, as part of the anti-Castro efforts sponsored by Mr. Bishop, trained you in various intelligence and operational methods. Are you now aware of any further information which could possibly help identify Mr. Melton?

-- Are you aware of the whereabouts of Jack (possibly Jake) Cogswell, who may have known Maurice Bishop?

3. You have referred to a March 1963 press conference (Fonzi, p. 132) which was carried out at Bishop's urging, where you announced a successful raid on a Soviet ship docked in Cuban waters. Bishop apparently made arrangements for two high-level government officials to attend the press conference. Who were these officials? Were you aware of the existence of a relationship between Bishop and these officials?

4. Regarding your position with the United States Agency for International Development: how sure are you that Maurice Bishop, or elements of the U.S. intelligence community, had something to do with getting you that job? Can you detail your "official" responsibilities as an AID employee?

5. Why do you think Cesar Diosdado questioned various Cuban exiles after the assassination? What is your opinion as to his motivation? Sponsors?

6. Are you currently in the possession of records relating to any investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy?

7. Are you willing to provide proof of the $253,000 payment which you allege was paid to you by Maurice Bishop?
