

ALAN WHITE INTERVIEW

November 29, 1995

White Background

Prior testimony to HSCA

Scott (station) maintained exhaustive files

Considered Oswald's visit "worthy of note" not of extreme interest

Contacts by Americans were not frequent

Mentions "think pieces" prepared by Scott after the assassination that were being sent to HQ - no sign of these in collection, so far

All cables re: assassination were funneled through Scott

Tour of duty and responsibilities as DCOS in MC

In MC from mid-1963 - mid-1965; with Agency from 1946-1976

Minimal mention of White in records or HSCA testimony

Work did involve some contact with agents

CIA Mexico City Station

Relationship with Scott

"Peculiar relationship"

Chain of command and extent of compartmentation

Knowledge of various operations

Cuba/surveillance/liaison with J MWAVE - David Phillips and Robert Shaw

Soviet operations/surveillance

Acc. to Goodpasture, White was not "in charge" of any particular operation but acted more in a supervisory role

CIA Personnel

Ann Goodpasture

Nature of relationship with Scott - conflicting evidence

Knowledge of operations and responsibilities for them - conflicting evidence

Individual who allegedly located and assembled all materials related to Oswald's visit

White's description in HSCA testimony

Win Scott

Type of person

Nature of working relationship

Quality of his memory

while COS
during retirement
Memoires
James Angleton

David Phillips

What was he doing in 1963
To whom did he report
Any back channels
Liaison with JMWAVE

Robert Shaw

Division of responsibility between he and Phillips on Cuba/Covert Action matters

Translators/Transcribers/Monitors/Technical & Surveillance Staff

Contact with these employees
Extent of knowledge of operations involving these employees
Transcripts, tapes, voice comparisons - SOPs

Station liaison with US entities

FBI

Standard operating procedures for treatment of Americans when seen/heard in the embassies

ONI

Sharing/coordinating of intelligence

INS

G-2

Warren Commission Visit in 1964

Acc. to Goodpasture, White was one of three individuals who spoke with Warren Commission personnel

Describe activities that occurred while representatives of Commission visited the MC station

Existence of Oswald tapes - were they played for Coleman and Slawson

Circumstances surrounding interrogation of Sylvia Duran - existence of transcripts of interrogation

Document-based questions