FOR THE HISTORICAL MATERIALS OF

1. In accordance with the provisions of chapter 21 of title 44, United States Code, and subject to the terms, conditions, and restrictions set forth in this instrument,
_____ (Donor[s]) gives, donates, and conveys to the United States of America, for deposit with the National Archives and Records Administration (National Archives), the following historical materials (hereinafter referred to as “the Donated Materials”):
  - a.
2. The Donor warrants that, at the time of the execution of this Deed of Gift, _____ [he/she/they/it] possessed title to and all rights and interest in the Donated Materials free and clear of all liens, claims, charges, or encumbrances.
3. Title to the Donated Materials shall pass to the United States upon the delivery of the Donated Materials and the execution of this Deed of Gift to the JFK Assassination Records Review Board or to the National Archives.
4. The Donor gives, donates, and assigns to the United States all intellectual property interest that _____ [he/she/they/it] now possess[es] in the Donated Materials.
5. The Donated Materials shall be maintained by the National Archives in the John F. Kennedy Assassination Records Collection (JFK Collection) in accordance with the provisions of title 44, United States Code.
6. Once title to the Donated Materials passes to the United States and the Donated Materials are included in the JFK Collection, the Donor may freely examine them during the working hours of the depository at which they are being maintained.
7. The Donor may, upon request and from time to time, obtain reproductions of any or all of the Donated Materials. The Archivist or his designee shall determine at the time of each request whether reproductions are to be provided free of charge or, in the alternative, for a fee set in accordance with the provisions of chapter 21 of title 44, United States Code.
8. (a) It is the Donor’s wish that the Donated Materials be made available for us by the public as soon after and to the fullest extent possible following their deposit with the National Archives. For this reason, the Donor places no restrictions on the use of the Donated Materials.

- (b) The Archivist of the United States (“Archivist”) may, subject only to restrictions placed upon him by law or regulation, provide for the preservation, arrangement, repair and rehabilitation duplication and reproduction, description, exhibition, display, and servicing of the Donated Materials as may be needful or appropriate.
