Dear Mr. Underwood:

Thank you for agreeing to meet with us for a second time in order to take your deposition under oath. This will enable the ARRB to have on the public record the most accurate account of your story pertaining to the events surrounding the Kennedy assassination. As you are aware, the ARRB's mandate expires on September 30, 1998, and we have been anxious to establish closure on our business with you before then. We anticipate that the deposition will take only thirty minutes to an hour of your time, and would like to accommodate you in any way that will be most comfortable for you.

We would like to conduct the deposition on Thursday, June 11, and have reserved a room at the Sheraton Hotel in Towson for this purpose. We will also be arranging to have a court reporter present. I presume the Sheraton is still your preference for the meeting place, but let me know if that has changed. We would be most' happy to provide transportation for you, if that is more convenient. When you call on Monday or Tuesday next week to confirm the date, we can then set a time that best fits your schedule.

One of the attorneys on the ARRB staff, Ms. Kim Herd, will be conducting the deposition. I think you will find her to be extremely personable and understanding. The types of questions and subject matter to be covered in the deposition will be similar to what we discussed in our meeting last July. To refresh your memory and to facilitate our discussion, I have prepared a rough outline and a few talking points of the subjects that we would like to cover. Kim and I anticipate the session to be informal.

I recognize that you have been battling a number of health problems this year and sincerely appreciate your willingness to assist us. I hope you will feel some relief to have closure on this matter as well. I look forward to your phone call next week, but feel free to call me before then at (202)724-0088 if you have any questions or concerns.

Once again, thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Irene F. Marr
