Dear Harold:

I was glad to have the chance to see you and Lillian again. On our way home, my daughter raved about your yard and pine cones. Thanks, too, for your recent letters.

Following your request, I am enclosing some documents that I hope are of interest and assistance to you. Although we generally do not send voluminous copies of the records that we release to individuals, I thought that for you, in this case, it would be a good idea to make an exception to that rule. Accordingly, I am enclosing a copy of our Vietnam release. (I am also enclosing a subset of the records that comprise the press samples from those documents.) As you will see, much of the information is duplicative, but it does provide you with some of the most interesting documents that we have released thus far from the Joint Chiefs of Staff papers.

I also am enclosing an index of FBI assassination-related records that ties the release to file numbers. Although the "subject-file name" is not always linked to the "subject-file number," I hope that there are enough such links to make them worth your while.

As promised, I will send you a copy of the staff report on medical evidence as soon as it is ready to go.

Best wishes,

T. Jeremy Gunn
Executive Director
