Dear Dr. Slaney:

I am writing pursuant to our discussion last week about staffing for the Holocaust Assets Commission. I mentioned to you that the Assassination Records Review Board is scheduled to sunset in September, and there are several staff members here who would be very interested in working with the new commission. I am enclosing copies of the resumes of eight Review Board employees.

Not only are the staff members individually very capable people, each of them now possesses security clearances through Top Secret/SCI. They all have experience working with a multitude of federal agencies on historical records and declassification. By way of a short individual introductions let me offer the following points.

Tracy Shycoff, whose praises I have already sung for you, is our Associate Director for Administration.

Ron Haron, an attorney, is the Associate General Counsel.

Bob Skwirot, who has a background in European history, is our coordinator for CIA records.

Eileen Sullivan is our Press Officer.

Jim Goslee is an analyst for military records.

Cathy Rodriguez provides administrative and secretarial support. She also has lived in Germany and speaks some German.

Kevin Tiernan is a Senior Analyst for FBI records.

Marie Fagnant is an analyst of FBI records.

Sarah Ahmed is an analyst for FBI records.

Doug Horne is our Chief Analyst for Military Records.

I would be delighted to provide you or others additional information about these very talented people.

Sincerely,

T. Jeremy Gunn
Executive Director and
General Counsel
