Dear Mr. DiEugenio:

This letter is in follow-up to my telephone message to you this morning. As I told you in that message, I received your May 6, 1995 letter today (mailed by you on June 16 in a new envelope). It appears the problem with the original envelope was that you had the old 20004 zip code on it, and the post office will not deliver to us with that zip. Anyway, the packet of information finally made it here, and I thank you for sending it.

In your May 6 letter you mentioned that you know a former FBI employee who knows where some of the original physical evidence in the case is located at FBI Headquarters. We've never talked about this, but I would like to contact her forthwith for any information she may have about these assassination records. Will you please call at your earliest convenience with this information? Thank you.

Thank you again for your ongoing assistance and time. It is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Anne Buttimer, Esq.
Chief Investigator
