Dear Ms. Godfrey:

This letter is to follow up on our several telephone calls and messages of two weeks ago. Part of my duties as the Review Board's Chief Investigator require that I contact all former House Select Committee on Assassinations members, staff and consultants who worked on the John F. Kennedy aspect of the Select Committee's work. I understand you have remained in contact with a number of staffers and compiled a list (of which Kevin Walsh gave us a copy, dated March 1987) of staffer's names and then-telephone numbers.

On behalf of the Review Board I would appreciate any assistance you can give me on updating the telephone numbers and addresses for any members, staffers or consultants of whom you have knowledge of current whereabouts. I will contact you in the next week or so to arrange a convenient meeting time and location. In the meantime, thank you for your cooperation and assistance.

Sincerely,

Anne Buttimer, Esq.
Chief Investigator
