

February 17, 1995

*Mr. Douglas Horne
46-049 Alii Anela Pl., #1724
Kaneohe, Hawaii 96744*

Dear Mr. Horne:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*

February 17, 1995

*Mr. Michael Ravnitzky
612 Lincoln Avenue, #301
St. Paul, Minnesota 55102-2829*

Dear Mr. Ravnitzky:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*

February 17, 1995

*Mr. Michael J. McGuire
322 Redwood Lane
Cheshire, Connecticut 06410-2342*

Dear Mr. McGuire:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*

February 17, 1995

*Mr. Thomas Wilson
4402 Logans Ferry Road
Murrysville, PA 15668*

Dear Mr. Wilson:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*

February 28, 1995

*Mr. John Rademacher
321 Arrowhead Drive
Granbury, Texas 76048*

Dear Mr. Rademacher:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*

February 28, 1995

Mr. Bill Adams
P.O. Box 24945
San Jose, CA 95154

Dear Mr. Adams:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*

March 7, 1995

Mr. Arend Kistemaker

Duizendroed 31
1602 KT Enkhuizen
The Netherlands

Dear Mr Kistemaker:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

March 3, 1995

Mark S. Zaid, Esq.
1300 19th St., N.W.
Suite 300
Washington, D.C. 20036

Dear Mr. Zaid:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*

March 3, 1995

Charles J. Sanders, Esq.
525 East 72nd St.
New York, N.Y. 10021

Dear Mr. Sanders:

Thank you for the written comments that you have submitted on the proposed interpretive regulation published by the Assassination Records Review Board in the Federal Register on February 8, 1995.

The Board appreciates your taking the time to offer input. As I know you are aware, the Congress made clear that it was important to ensure an opportunity for public participation in the Board's work. That is why the Board will carefully consider the comments received on the proposed interpretive regulations.

Again, thank you for writing to the Review Board. We will continue to keep you apprised of the Board's work.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.

Press and Public Affairs Officer