The Assassination Records Review Board subpoenaed Robert Groden and he was subsequently deposed by the staff on July 2, 1996 and August 20, 1996. Mr. Groden was questioned regarding his possible possession of originals and copies of photographs and film of the Kennedy assassination and the subsequent autopsy. He was not deposed as an expert in either photography or the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. He has never been requested to testify before the Board in any capacity.
