Dear John:

I wanted to take this opportunity to thank you for speaking with me today about the appropriations process. I know you are very busy and are focusing on your own budget, making your return call and the time on the telephone all the more appreciated. Your insights are always helpful to us as we plot our course.

Again, thank you for your assistance. Best of luck on your meeting with the Appropriations Subcommittee staff on Tuesday.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk
Associate Director
