

The Review Board staff reviewed several donated collections of records relating to the Kennedy assassination at the Special Collections Division of the Georgetown University Library. Among these collections were approximately 90,000 pages of documents released under the Freedom of Information Act in the late 1970s. Georgetown acquired redacted versions of the FBI files on Lee Harvey Oswald, Jack Ruby, and the JFK Assassination Investigation following their release under the FOIA. These records did not receive much use over the years at the Georgetown Library, and Georgetown decided that they would donate them to the JFK Collection at NARA.
