Dear Mr. Heineman:

Thank you for your recent letter to the Review Board. It is the Board's understanding that the LBJ Library does not have the papers of the late General Edwin Walker. We would be interested in receiving any information you may have about these materials.

I have enclosed all Review Board materials sent to the public since May 1996. Your name and address remain on our mailing list, and I have added the four digit zip code extension you provided. I hope you no longer have problems receiving our mail.

Again, thank you for writing to the Board about this matter.

Sincerely,

Eileen A. Sullivan
Assistant Press and Public Affairs Officer
