Dear Dr. Montgomery:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for all of your assistance in connection with our Dallas public hearing on November 18, 1994.

You and the other staff members from The Sixth Floor with whom we dealt provided invaluable assistance to the Board in preparation for the hearing and during our trip. Your ready willingness to escort the Board and staff to Dealey Plaza and the museum during the lunch break was particularly helpful and added immensely to the media coverage.

Again, our sincere thanks for all of your efforts during the Dallas trip. We look forward to working with you again in the future.

Sincerely,
