

Documents 22 & 76

RE: Redactions and Substitute Language

1. Possible Questions and Suggested Answers

1. Why isn't the actual language being released?
2. Doesn't this simply exacerbate existing cynicism about the files when you release only part of the information and not the actual language?
3. Does "intercept" mean tape or transcript? We don't know.
4. Are you going to try and find the "intercept?" Yes.
5. Was the CIA aware of the possible existence of another copy of the "intercept?"

2. News Release

3. Statute Reference

4. Jack Preparation

5. "Bracketing"

List

1. Melissa Robinson, AP
2. Max Holland, Nation
3. Kelly Wallace, CNN
4. Josh Gerstein, ABC
5. Bob Clark, ABC
6. Jeff Morley, Washington Post
7. Tim Weiner, New York Times
8. Kendra Gahagan, NBC
9. Rosemary Freitas, NBC
10. Hugh Aynesworth, Washington Times
11. Sam Meddis, USA Today
12. Jim Wolfe, Reuters