

December 8, 1994

Mr. James Morse
Meadow Lakes 3604
Hightstown, NJ 08520

Dear Mr. Morse:

Thank you for your letter to the Review Board regarding your interest in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Mr. John Tunheim, Chair of the Review Board, asked me to respond and apologize for the delay in writing to you. The Board only recently received funding to hire a staff.

I have enclosed some materials for your information. Included are the following:

1. A fact sheet on the Review Board;
2. Remarks made by Mr. Tunheim at a recent conference in Washington, D.C.;
3. A recent news release on the Board's plans for early 1995; and
4. An information kit that was distributed at the Board's public hearing in Dallas on November 18, 1994.

The Review Board is committed to ensuring the broadest possible release of records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although it is not the Board's responsibility under the law to answer the questions that remain concerning the assassination and its aftermath, it is the Board's duty to do its best to find all of the remaining records and secure them at the National Archives so that the public has full access to them.

Again, thank you for your interest in the Review Board and your patience in waiting for a response from us.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

enclosures

December 8, 1994

Ms. Diane Castellano
2321 Clementine Tr.
Clermont, FL 34711

Dear Ms. Castellano:

Thank you for your letter to the Review Board regarding your interest in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Mr. John Tunheim, Chair of the Review Board, asked me to respond and apologize for the delay in writing to you. The Board only recently received funding to hire a staff.

I have enclosed some materials for your information. Included are the following:

1. A fact sheet on the Review Board;
2. Remarks made by Mr. Tunheim at a recent conference in Washington, D.C.;
3. A recent news release on the Board's plans for early 1995; and
4. An information kit that was distributed at the Board's public hearing in Dallas on November 18, 1994.

The Review Board is committed to ensuring the broadest possible release of records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although it is not the Board's responsibility under the law to answer the questions that remain concerning the assassination and its aftermath, it is the Board's duty to do its best to find all of the remaining records and secure them at the National Archives so that the public has full access to them.

Again, thank you for your interest in the Review Board and your patience in waiting for a response from us.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

enclosures

December 8, 1994

Mr. Gabe Edelson
5136 Corners Drive
West Bloomfield, MI 48322

Dear Mr. Edelson:

Thank you for your letter to the Review Board regarding your interest in the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Mr. John Tunheim, Chair of the Review Board, asked me to respond and apologize for the delay in writing to you. The Board only recently received funding to hire a staff.

I have enclosed some materials for your information. Included are the following:

1. A fact sheet on the Review Board;
2. Remarks made by Mr. Tunheim at a recent conference in Washington, D.C.;
3. A recent news release on the Board's plans for early 1995; and
4. An information kit that was distributed at the Board's public hearing in Dallas on November 18, 1994.

The Review Board is committed to ensuring the broadest possible release of records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although it is not the Board's responsibility under the law to answer the questions that remain concerning the assassination and its aftermath, it is the Board's duty to do its best to find all of the remaining records and secure them at the National Archives so that the public has full access to them.

Again, thank you for your interest in the Review Board and your patience in waiting for a response from us.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

enclosures

December 15, 1994

Ms. Maggie Berlin
5276 149th St. W.
Apple Valley, MN 55124

Dear Ms. Berlin:

Thank you for your interest in the work of the Assassination Records Review Board. Mr. John Tunheim, Chair of the Review Board, asked me to respond and apologize for the delay in writing to you. The Board only recently received funding to hire a staff.

I have enclosed some materials for your information. Included are the following:

1. A fact sheet on the Review Board;
2. Remarks made by Mr. Tunheim at a recent conference in Washington, D.C.;
3. A recent news release on the Board's plans for early 1995; and
4. An information kit that was distributed at the Board's public hearing in Dallas on November 18, 1994.

The Review Board is committed to ensuring the broadest possible release of records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although it is not the Board's responsibility under the law to answer the questions that remain concerning the assassination and its aftermath, it is the Board's duty to do its best to find all of the remaining records and secure them at the National Archives so that the public has full access to them.

Again, thank you for your interest in the Review Board and your patience in waiting for a response from us.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

enclosures

December 22, 1994

Mr. Jay Leslie
1601a Payne Drive
Jefferson City, MO 65101

Dear Mr. Leslie:

Thank you for your interest in the work of the Assassination Records Review Board. Mr. John Tunheim, Chair of the Review Board asked me to respond to your letter.

I have enclosed some materials for your information. Included are the following:

1. A fact sheet on the Review Board;
2. Remarks made by Mr. Tunheim at a recent conference in Washington, D.C.;
3. A recent news release on the Board's plans for early 1995;
4. A recent news release on the hiring of the senior staff; and
5. An information kit that was distributed at the Board's public hearing in Dallas on November 18, 1994.

The Review Board is committed to ensuring the broadest possible release of records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although it is not the Board's responsibility under the law to answer the questions that remain concerning the assassination and its aftermath, it is the Board's duty to do its best to find all of the remaining records and secure them at the National Archives so that the public has full access to them.

Again, thank you for your interest in the Review Board.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

enclosures

December 22, 1994

Mr. Eddy A. Flick
652 Hickory Lane
Rossville, GA 30741

Dear Mr. Flick:

Thank you for your interest in the work of the Assassination Records Review Board. Mr. John Tunheim, Chair of the Review Board asked me to respond to your letter.

I have enclosed some materials for your information. Included are the following:

1. A fact sheet on the Review Board;
2. Remarks made by Mr. Tunheim at a recent conference in Washington, D.C.;
3. A recent news release on the Board's plans for early 1995;
4. A recent news release on the hiring of the senior staff; and
5. An information kit that was distributed at the Board's public hearing in Dallas on November 18, 1994.

The Review Board is committed to ensuring the broadest possible release of records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although it is not the Board's responsibility under the law to answer the questions that remain concerning the assassination and its aftermath, it is the Board's duty to do its best to find all of the remaining records and secure them at the National Archives so that the public has full access to them.

Again, thank you for your interest in the Review Board.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

enclosures

December 22, 1994

Mr. Rex Dean
3553 Altamont Drive
Carmichael, CA 95608

Dear Mr. Dean:

Thank you for your interest in the work of the Assassination Records Review Board. Mr. John Tunheim, Chair of the Review Board asked me to respond to your letter.

I have enclosed some materials for your information. Included are the following:

1. A fact sheet on the Review Board;
2. Remarks made by Mr. Tunheim at a recent conference in Washington, D.C.;
3. A recent news release on the Board's plans for early 1995;
4. A recent news release on the hiring of the senior staff; and
5. An information kit that was distributed at the Board's public hearing in Dallas on November 18, 1994.

The Review Board is committed to ensuring the broadest possible release of records related to the assassination of President Kennedy. Although it is not the Board's responsibility under the law to answer the questions that remain concerning the assassination and its aftermath, it is the Board's duty to do its best to find all of the remaining records and secure them at the National Archives so that the public has full access to them.

Again, thank you for your interest in the Review Board.

Sincerely,

Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer

enclosures