Dear Maeve:

Thank you for stopping in to introduce yourself when I was at the University to speak with Professor Melanson. I appreciate your offer to assist the Review Board on press and getting people to attend our public meeting. I am providing you with some information which I believe will assist you (and us) in your efforts.

First, the details on the public meeting at which Professor Melanson will testify:

Event: Assassination Records Review Board Public Meeting

Date: Friday, March 24, 1995

Time: 10:00 a.m.

Location: Massachusetts State House

Hearing Room A-1 (First floor)

Boston, MA

Second, at the public meeting on March 24th, the Review Board will conduct business on a range of relevant matters and also hear testimony from a small number of historians and records experts (including Professor Melanson) who reside in Massachusetts. I will provide you with the official agenda when it is available.

Third, as you are aware, this is a public meeting and students or others to whom you extend an invitation are welcome. The hearing room has seating for approximately 70 people, with additional standing room.

Telephone: (202) 724-0088 Facsimile: (202) 724-0457

Fourth, I have included a three page fact sheet on the Review Board for your information. This should assist you in describing the responsibilities of the Board.

Again, thank you for your assistance and please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions. I am back in Washington and can be reached at (202) 724-0088, ext. 227.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
