University of California, Berkeley
Berkeley, CA 94720*

Dear Mr. Scott:

Thank you for your letter of April 21, 1995 to Mr. John Tunheim regarding various assassination records. He has asked me to respond on his behalf.

Please be assured that all of the information with which you have provided the Review Board is being carefully reviewed. The Board has accumulated a significant amount of information from researchers regarding specific assassination records held by a variety of federal and state agencies. The staff is processing, reviewing and organizing all of this information in a manner which will allow for coordinated, effective and efficient action relative to each of the agencies.

This is not a form letter. The additional information contained in your most recent letter has been preliminarily screened and directed to the appropriate member of the staff.

Again, thank you for the additional information and your continuing interest in the work of the Review Board.

Sincerely,

*Thomas E. Samoluk, Esq.
Press and Public Affairs Officer*
