Michael:

I am providing the information below regarding our rehearsal dinner to give you additional information about what we had in mind. Your input would be appreciated. Please note that I have a few questions highlighted. I understand that you are working on Thursday, August 22nd, and will follow-up this fax with a phone call tomorrow. Thanks.

Tom Samoluk

I. Number of Guests: Approximately 40

II. Schedule

Cocktails: 7:00 pm

Dinner: 7:30 pm

III. Menu

Hors D'Oeuvres

Cheese/Crackers/Vegetables/Dips (at $1.50 per person)

Champagne Toast

Note: How much would it cost per person to have a champagne toast before dinner? If we did this, we would ask that every place setting have a champagne glass and we do the toast when our guests our seated.

Menu "B" (with (2) substitutions from "A" Menu)

Deep Fried Essex Clams (substitute for Shrimp in Coconut Beer Batter)

Shrimp Scampi

Grilled Teriyaki Shrimp

Scallop Stuffed Sole

Roast Duckling

Boneless Breast of Chicken Dijonaise from "A" Menu (substitute for New York Sirloin)

Question: What will the price per person be with these "A" Menu Substitutions?

Dessert

Apple Crisp

Question: Price per person?

IV. Alcohol Service

Guests order individual drinks; hosts billed at end of evening

Note: Any suggestions or thoughts on how to handle the alcohol service would be appreciated.

V. Parking

Question: Should we tell our guests that there is additional parking across the street at Woodman's?
