Mr. David W. Belin
Staff Director
Rockefeller Commission Investigation of Central Intelligence Agency
Capitol Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Belin:

I was the Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division of the Justice Department for the first three years of the Nixon administration.

On two different occasions, I discussed the Castro assassination plans with Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, and I saw and read a secret file on this subject.

If requested, I will make available to you such information as I have on the subject provided that any information I make available to you must be done legally and so that I do not violate any law in doing so.

Sincerely,

Will Wilson
