On 3/26/65 FRANK HALLEY, Department Superintendent, New Jersey State Police, advised that at a law enforcement meeting in Hartford, Connecticut, recently someone from a law enforcement agency in Essex County, New Jersey, whom he could not further identify, told him that the "Jersey Mob" (CAPONIGRO, CATENA, BOIARDO) was planning to have a big meet in Acapulco, Mexico, in the near future or they would have to meet in the "Far East".

On 3/30/65 NK 2479-C advised that there was supposed to be a meeting of top members of the "organization" (COSA NOSTRA) either currently going on or scheduled for the near future in Acapulco, Mexico. He added that for some reason the location of this meeting had been changed to a city in Japan.

The informant added that the subject and ANTHONY RIELA, both of New Jersey, were being considered for promotion to higher office in the "organization". He added a third individual unknown to the informant was also being considered for this promotion.
