SECTION B PERFORMANCE EVALUATION
W - Weak	Performance ranges from wholly inadequate to slightly less than satisfactory. A rating in this category requires positive remedial action. The nature of the action could range from counseling, to further training, to placing on probation, to reassignment or to separation. Describe action taken or proposed in Section C.
A - Adequate	Performance meets all requirements. It is entirely satisfactory and is characterized neither by deficiency nor excellence.
P - Proficient	Performance is more than satisfactory. Desired results are being produced in a proficient manner.
S - Strong	Performance is characterized by exceptional proficiency.
O - Outstanding	Performance is so exceptional in relation to requirements of the work and in comparison to the performance of others doing similar work as to warrant special recognition.

SPECIFIC DUTIES

List up to six of the most important specific duties performed during the rating period. Insert rating letter which best describes the manner in which employee performs EACH specific duty. Consider ONLY effectiveness in performance of that duty. All employees with supervisory responsibilities MUST be rated on their ability to supervise (indicate number of employees supervised).

SECTION C

NARRATIVE COMMENTS

Indicate significant strengths or weaknesses demonstrated in current position keeping in proper perspective their relationship to overall performance. State suggestions made for improvement of work performance. Give recommendations for training. Comment on foreign language competence, if required for current position. Amplify or explain ratings given in Section B to provide basis for determining future personnel action. Manner of performance of managerial or supervisory duties must be described, if applicable.

Mr. Piccolo ^{MAIL} was previously assigned to WH/SA/CI from September 1962 to December 1963, was reassigned to the Branch on 13 July 1964 after completing the six months Junior Officer Trainee training course.

Having had previous experience in Cuban operations, Mr. Piccolo was immediately assigned the duty of assisting in the debriefing of a Cuban Intelligence Service defector. Mr. Piccolo performed this in a very capable fashion and his efforts significantly increased the flow and quality of information from the defector.

Also during this period Mr. Piccolo was sent TDY to Belgium, to handle, debrief, and participate in the training of a very important--but difficult to handle---newly recruited Cuban agent. Inasmuch as this agent was expecting to return to Cuba soon, Mr. Piccolo was responsible for "wrapping up" in the field (with Headquarter's direction) all the necessary elements including radio communications, S/W, and concealment devices to dispatch the agent to Cuba. In this exceedingly difficult assignment Mr. Piccolo performed well, displaying considerable resourcefulness and initiative.

Mr. Piccolo's fluency in Spanish makes him a particularly valuable officer for WH/SA/CI operations. He is a conscientious, dependable, intelligent, and well-educated officer who gets along well with his fellow employees.
